Norman Bobins, Member

(Crain's) — Former LaSalle Bank Corp. Chairman Norman Bobins is getting into the consulting business. Mr. Bobins, 65, who retired from Chicago's top business bank at the end of last year following its acquisition by Bank of America Corp., has formed a strategic alliance with law firm DLA Piper in Chicago. Friends and associates of Mr. Bobins continue to believe he will join the board of PrivateBancorp Inc., the mid-sized lender now run by Larry Richman, Mr. Bobins' protégé at LaSalle.
